Alpine, Tex., May 8.—The seventy or more bandits who raided Glenn Springs and Sequit, Texas, Friday night, are believed to be heading towards the interior of Coahuila. A posse from Marathon, and a detachment of twenty-three troopers of the Fourteenth cavalry, are said to have followed the bandits' trail into Coahuila, while other reports have it that the American have not forded the Rio Grande but are awaiting reinforcements.

Captain Cole is hurrying from Soniquillas to take command, while two companies of the Fourteenth cavalry and a machine gun company are expected to reach here on Marathon this afternoon to head south into the Big Bend country. In the raid on Glenn Springs and Deemer's place Friday night six men and one boy are reported killed. Two men were kidnapped.

Texans in Pursuit.

Marathon, Tex., May 8.—W. B. Ellis, leading a posse of fifty Texans started from here to pursue the Mexicans who raided Glenn Springs and Boquillas Friday night and Saturday morning. Every member of the party is familiar with the topography of the Big Bend country and is an expert with both revolver and rifle. The Mexicans are said to be camped on both sides of the river between Boquillas and Boquillas del Carmen.

Carranza Approves Agreement.

El Paso, Tex., May 8.—General Scott expects to have a final conference with General Obregon today and probably no change will result on account of Friday's raid.

General Scott said Carranza has approved, in general, the agreement made, and that Obregon has full authority to accept on behalf of the de facto government.
